A branch of the Booklovers' library has been established in Barre, being located in the Red Cross. This library contains all the new books as soon as published, and they are loaned to responsible people on the two-cent-a-day plan, with special prices by the month or year with unlimited service. No membership fee required; simply pay for the time the book is out. This new idea is proving very popular.

The statement in yesterday's paper that the city schools will close Thursday and Friday to permit the teachers to attend the state teachers' convention in Burlington on those days was perhaps somewhat misleading. It should have been stated that only those rooms whose teachers attend the convention are to be closed. When the teachers opened school this morning, they were bombarded with a chorus of anxious questioners as to the authenticity of yesterday's statement, and so this correction is made.

"The Blue Mouse," Clyde Fitch's adaptation from the German, with a splendid cast, will be the attraction at the opera house this evening, when the company will be seen for the first time. A Salome dancer with "temperament," whose sobriquet is "The Blue Mouse," is engaged by Rollett, secretary to the president of a railroad, to impersonate his real wife and flirt with the president, with the hopes of getting him a promotion. Her name "temperament," of course, gets her into all kinds of scrapes, and before the first act is well begun the real Mrs. Rollett, her father from Cohoes, the real wife of the president and the "Mouse's" sweetheart from "Frisco" turn up. There are three acts to the excitingly funny farce, and the cast is one of the largest ever required to present such a comedy.

Three of these Coupons presented to the Clerk at the Pearl Street Bowling Alley will be accepted as cash for three Bowling Tickets.

Only three coupons will be accepted from any one bowler and must be presented on or before Saturday evening of the week they are printed.
